Armistice Day Pledge

By F. W. GALBRAITH, JR.

National Commander, American Legion.

The swift triumph of our arms and those of our gallant allies which two years ago gave us the victory, the anniversary of which we observe today, marks the highlight of the present century in American affairs. Victories such as Armistice day commemorates are not the issues solely of dashes of flesh and steel. They have a finer quality than that. They are the triumphs, as well, of an unconquerable spirit.

No victory, however complete, long can survive the spirit that conceived it. The annals of mankind are replete with examples of splendid triumphs in behalf of splendid causes that have gone for naught because the spirit that made them ceased to endure.

This is only the second anniversary of Armistice day—a day destined, if we will, to keep company with the immortals of the calendar which mark great moments of history that shall never die. Succeeding generations will acclaim Armistice day. God grant they always shall acclaim it in the spirit that made it, and that this spirit, like the day, shall be imperishable.

With this prayer in our hearts let us renew each year our vows of fealty, repledge and keep unshakable our faith in the high ideals, the lofty purposes, the unselfish aspirations and exalted, holy hopes that fired the hearts of Americans in 1918 and made ours a land from whence crusaders came, with souls afame, worthy of their victory.

To this end the American Legion today and forever solemnly pledges its all.

Two New Buildings
For Harwood School
To Cost $50,000

Two new buildings will be added on the campus of the Harwood Industrial school north of the city, a large dormitory and gymnasium building and a residence for the superintendent, to be erected at a cost of $50,000.

The contract was let on the additional buildings was let to M. F. Sawtelle at a meeting of the board of directors of the school last night. The plans drawn by E. H. Norris were approved and the contract awarded. Construction will begin as soon as possible.

The money for the new buildings was furnished for the greater part by the Mexican Consulate in New York, which allowed $4,000 for this purpose. The local board has $1,000 on hand. The institution is divided into the boys' school and the girls' school and both are filled to capacity.

Gov. Laramore Asks
Harding to Meet
Obregon at Border

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD
SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 11.—The people of the border states feel that a personal interview between you and President-elect Obregon would result in the most cordial relations between our country and Mexico," said Governor G. A. Laramore of New Mexico in a message to President-elect Warren G. Harding at Point, Texas.

"I am sure that a personal interview between you and President-elect Obregon would be pleasant to him. I would be pleased to meet you. May I suggest the advisability of such an interview?" the message continued.

Governor Laramore also announced today that he had received an invitation from Luis Munoz de Oca, council general at El Paso, to attend the inauguration of President-elect Obregon at Mexico City on December 1. The governor probably will attend the inauguration if official duties do not interfere.

Hunters Find Much
Game But Respect
Protective Laws

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD
LAS VEGAS, Nov. 11.—The efficiency of the present game laws and the officials concerned with their enforcement was brought out clearly here last week when hunters began returning from the deer and turkey ranges in the mountains. A good number of bucks were killed and many, many more were seen, while several hunters estimate that there has been at least hundred percent increase in deer within the last four or five years. One hunter reported having seen fifteen does and eighteen fawns in the five days he was out, as well as a good number of bucks and the tracks of many more. A fair number of bear tracks, some bobcats but very few tracks of mountain lions were seen, the latter fact accounting for the scarcity of deer. Turkeys, too, seem to be on the decrease.

Nervous Breakdown

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Read the Letters of These Two Women.

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."—ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.

WHAT Washington's COFFEE IS NOT

It is not an imitation. It is not expensive. It is not de-natured—not de-caffeinized—or de-anythinged. It is not 85% chaff, woody fibre, or grounds. It is not wasteful. It is not harmful. It is not necessary to "cook"—no coffee pot or percolator needed. It is not just "another brand" of coffee.
